Global update

British Prime Minister Boris Johnson and President Joe Biden heaped praise on each other as the two leaders sought to relaunch the UK-US relationship at a time of rising tensions over the fallout from Brexit.

Beijing — China passed a law on Thursday to counter foreign sanctions, as it strives to resist US and EU pressure over trade, technology, Hong Kong and Xinjiang.

Local update

The rand remained firmer against the dollar after President Cyril Ramaphosa lifted some of the restrictions imposed on companies with respect to generating their own power. Though pulling back a little in late-afternoon trade, the rand closed the day stronger, even after data on Thursday showed inflation in the US accelerated to 5% in May, from 4.2% the previous month.

Super Group, the listed transport and logistics business, has notified shareholders that it expects stellar earnings when it releases its annual results at the end of August. The Johannesburg-based company said it expects headline earnings per share (heps) to increase 64%-100% in the year to June 30, according to a trading update released on Thursday.

The Public Service Commission (PSC) says the failure of government departments to pay suppliers on time has brought “untold harm” to the economy, with many businesses closing shop due to a lack of cashflow. Failure to pay suppliers of services and goods has dire consequences for the sustainability of businesses, mostly small medium and micro enterprises (SMMEs).

MultiChoice, which increased profit by more than a quarter in the 12 months ended March 31, has increased its stake in sports betting platform BetKing as it seeks to cash in on the buoyant industry and boost the number of its subscribers. MultiChoice said on Thursday it paid $281.5m (about R4.4bn), taking its ownership of BetKing, a digital and sports entertainment platform that focuses on Africa, to 49%. It initially bought a 20% stake in October 2020.
