

Spend your Multiply for Corporates rewards!

Multiply for Corporates is our corporate rewards programme that helps you to take care of your employees' physical and financial health. Rewards are based on the number of qualifying Momentum products you have, your workplace safety and engagement levels.

You can redeem and spend your Multiply for Corporates rewards on various initiatives for your employees. The initiative or service must be for the benefit of all employees, either to enhance workplace safety, financial and physical wellbeing or boost staff morale.

This is the Multiply effect!

Staff incentives and awards

You can use your Multiply for Corporates rewards to fund staff incentives and awards. You can purchase Multiply partner vouchers, Multiply online store credits or Multiply online shop products. Employees must have registered profiles on multiply.co.za and previously accessed multiplyonlineshop.co.za to receive online store credits.

The Multiply online shop is available to employees who are members of Multiply Starter or Premier, and offers savings on groceries, travel, tools, entertainment and more. Multiply members must register online to access the shop.

Medical screening

According to research, if employees are off sick for longer than expected, this could possibly be an indication that they are suffering from a more severe condition. Medical screenings can help you get a view of your employees' risk profile and implement the necessary interventions.

You can use your Multiply for Corporates rewards to subsidise individual health risk assessments, HIV screening or flu vaccinations as part of the wellness day services or on its own.

Rewards may be accumulated for up to two years, after which they will be forfeited by you. So make sure you spend your rewards before they expire.

When you are ready to spend your rewards, email MultiplyforCorporates@momentum.co.za.
