📄 Momentum outcome-based investing philosophy

Investment success is about consistently maximising the probability of you achieving your investment goals – whether that is to preserve capital, generate an income stream in retirement or grow wealth within the parameters of a certain risk profile. In response to the ever-evolving investment landscape, we have constructed a range of outcome-based solutions that set their sights beyond mere benchmarks and instead focus on the things that matter the most to you – ensuring we maximise the probability of you achieving your investment goals. Outcome-based investing is about placing your goals at the centre of our investment process.

📄 Investor profile and investment strategy

This portfolio is aimed at investors who are in the preservation phase of investing. It has a short- to medium-term investment horizon and, therefore, the aim is to maintain an average exposure of 60% to asset classes that should preserve the purchasing power of the capital accumulated. A large emphasis is placed on capital preservation in the shorter term, which is achieved through diversification to defensive strategies and uncorrelated return profiles. The portfolio consists of the full universe of asset classes, including global investments of up to 30% (excluding Africa), and selective alternative asset classes. The allocations between asset classes are actively managed, taking the market environment into account. Through the optimum selection of asset classes, the probability of achieving the outcome is maximised within acceptable risk parameters. Performance fees may be paid within investment mandates, should they sufficiently enhance investment returns after fees. It is suitable as a stand-alone portfolio in retirement products, where compliance with Regulation 28 is specifically required.

Quarterly portfolio commentary for Q4 2020

The strength of the global economic upturn will be reliant on the success of vaccination campaigns and greater global co-operation to guarantee efficient distribution of vaccines worldwide but the road to recovery remains uneven and uncertain. Diversified economies that are less exposed to contact-intensive activity will likely fare better, while concentrated and services-related economies are likely to require further support. Continued fiscal stimulus and accommodative monetary policy are crucial, in our view, in keeping the world economy afloat and will lessen lasting economic damage from the crisis.

Meanwhile in South Africa (SA), muted confidence, a strained fiscus, ongoing electricity shortages and a flare up in infections will contain the anticipated recovery in growth in 2021. After contracting at an expected 8.1% in 2020, growth is likely to increase to a below-consensus 2% in 2021, before slowing to 1.6% in 2022. Efforts to arrest the increase in government's debt burden through higher growth will likely be constrained and could lead to further negative rating actions later in 2021. While near term inflation pressures are likely tilted to the downside, we see inflation rising in the medium term from an expected average of 3.2% in 2020 to 3.9% in 2021 and 4.7% in 2022. We are projecting a shift higher in interest rates in the second half of 2021 given the SA Reserve Bank's warning against the constraints of fiscal dominance and the dangers of running negative real interest rates for too long.

The portfolio returned 5.5% for the quarter, which outperformed the benchmark of 4.7%. Being overweight local and global equity contributed to the absolute and relative returns, whereas being underweight local property detracted from returns. During the quarter, we transitioned the portfolios to reflect our revised strategic asset allocation.

Notes

On 1 November 2020, the real return expectation for this portfolio was revised from inflation plus 3% to a range of inflation plus 2% to 3%. Changes were made to the strategic asset allocations on 31 October 2020.
